un-bee-lievable earth

12th

We're sprouting into summer with a bang! Wildflower bombs will be the highlight of this week as we explore planet Earth through fun activities and games!

spacing out

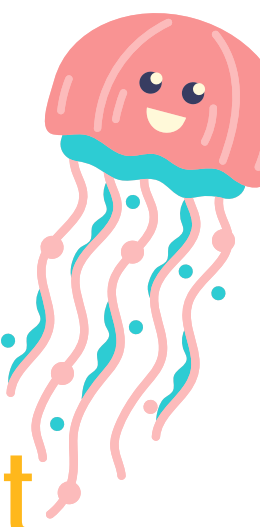

19th

Prepare to be blown out of this world as this week's feature is Baking Soda Rocketships! The sky is not the limit as we will explore constellations and more!

under the sea

26th

Don't be jelly but this week will be a deep dive into the infinite sea! We will get crafty and make our very own beach in a bottle! We will pop off July with giant bubbles!
